HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, July 11th, 1822.

$5,000 on Wednesday Next!

Agreeably to the Scheme of the Monument Lottery the first No. from the Wheel on WEDNESDAY NEXT, (being the 22nd drawing) will entitle the fortunate holder to the handsome premium of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS!

$20,000 prize Next Month!

The time for awarding the great capitals in the MONUMENT LOTTERY approaches rapidly. Twenty-one drawings are now over, and it will be recollected that on the twenty-eighth day, agreeably to the Scheme, the first drawn No. will be entitled to the splendid stationary prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!! This important drawing will take place on Wednesday the 28th of NEXT MONTH (August.) No time should be lost by our distant friends in sending on their Orders, because an advance in the price of tickets will soon take place, and of which it may not be in our power to give them sufficient notice of. The present rate of tickets is only Twelve Dollars, and shares in proportion.

The gain of the Wheel

in the MONUMENT LOTTERY still rapidly increases; the amount during the five last drawings exceeds Twelve Thousand Dollars! The floating prize of Five Thousand Dollars still remains in the Wheel, although there have been 10,500 Numbers drawn. We wait anxiously every drawing to hear this handsome floating capital announced, and we anticipate its falling to the lot of some of our customers.

There were several typographical errors in the Scheme of the State Lottery, as published in last week's Register; they have been corrected in this day's paper.—The Scheme will be found on the 4th page.

FROM VALPARAISO.

We learn by the arrival of the Carolina Ann, at New York, from Valparaiso, whence she sailed on the 29th March, that the U. S. frigate Constellation, captain Ridgely, had just arrived from Conception, and would sail for the United States in a few weeks. The Franklin 74, Com. Stewart, was still lying there, and would not probably sail till after the departure of the Constellation. The schr. Dolphin, Lieut. Connor, sailed on the 17th March for Conception, and was momentarily expected back.

By this arrival, letters are received confirming the report and detailing the painful particulars of the loss of a boat's company belonging to the Franklin 74. The following is an extract from one of the letters:

"On Tuesday, the 19th instant, a most melancholy and deplorable event occurred in this Bay. On the morning of that day, a party consisting of seven officers, viz. Lieut. James N. Perry, Dr. Cornelius C. De Puy, Midshipman Robert Marshall, John Cremer, Edward Preble, Robert B. Coffin, and Reuben R. Pinkham, and three seamen, named John Smith, 1st, Melancton C. Read, and William M'Daniels, all belonging to the Franklin, left the ship in one of her boats, with the design of visiting Quintera, a small town sixteen miles to the northward of this place, formerly the residence of Lord Cochrane. On nearing the shore, they unexpectedly found a high surf rolling in, and attempting to pass through it, in order to gain the usual landing place, the boat was overwhelmed by a tremendous surge, which capsized her and threw the whole party into the sea. Midshipman Pinkham and the lad M'Daniels were the only persons who escaped to relate the dreadful tidings! Messrs. Marshall and Cremer, although excellent swimmers, disappeared very soon, and it is supposed were carried down by one of the seamen who was unable to swim, as he was seen holding Marshall by the coat."

PANAMA was illuminated, and a public rejoicing took place on the 12th of May, in consequence of the recognition of their Independence by the United States.

NEW YORK, June 25.

Liverpool Packets.—We have never seen any thing more costly and magnificent than the cabin of the Hannibal packet ship bound to Liverpool.—The cabin itself is not so extensive as others, but can accommodate a pleasant number of passengers; the state rooms are spacious, and the whole formed either of mahogany, or those elegant woods, maple, cherry, &c. which are capable of a high and beautiful polish. The bannisters leading from the deck to the great cabin, are of massive brass, bearing a polish like gold; a brass seat, highly ornamented, is at the head of the cabin; and the rudder and two other conductors, passing through the cabin, near the windows, are encased in rich brass columns. The curtains of the state rooms are of crimson damask, and festoons of damask, with blue silk fringe and tassels, are tastefully carried round the windows, supported at each end by large anchors of rich burnished gold; and the corners are also held up by golden tridents. Rich Brussels' carpets, highly colored landscapes, and other ornaments, give a splendid appearance to the ship; and on going through on a visit of inspection, it is difficult to say, whether the skill and address of the workmen, or the liberality and enterprize of the owner, are to be most admired. She was built and thus completed by our worthy fellow citizen, John Flack, and is supposed to have cost $40,000.—Captain Watkinson formerly of the line ships, now commands her, and if experience in navigating, and comfort in living, are inducements to take a sea voyage, we may shortly expect that a summer excursion across the Atlantic will be as frequent as a tour to the West, to Quebec or the falls of Niagara.—Advocate.

VIRGINIA ROUTE

Of Communication with the Western Country.

Commissioners on the part of Virginia have given notice that they wish to employ a number of hands in improving the navigation of the Great Kanawha River; and offer to give twelve dollars per month and boarding, from May till November. A canal has been commenced from Richmond to the mouth of Dunlap's creek, on Jackson's river, at the eastern foot of the Allegany mountain, a distance of two hundred and fifty miles. From thence to the falls of the Kanawha, there will be a good road of 69 miles and from thence to the mouth of the Kanawha on the Ohio, there will be good navigation 94 miles. By this route, the Virginians hope to draw a large share of the western trade to Richmond. The canal is commenced, the road is contracted for, and the improvements of the Kanawha will be prosecuted through the ensuing summer.—Lexington Advertiser.

Miscellaneous Paragraphs.

The Board of Commissioners for the adjustment of Claims under the treaty with Spain, which has been sitting in Washington city, have adjourned to the third Tuesday in October next. They did not extend the time for claimants to file their memorials.

At Savannah, Geo. on the 20th ult. Judge Charlton gave his decision that Borthwick (who had been arrested for absconding with £40,000 from the East Lothian Bank) be released from prison, and that the writ of ne exeat be discharged.

Governor Branch of North Carolina, has declined accepting the office of a Judge in West Florida, to which he was lately appointed by the President and Senate of the United States.

The Pittsburg Mercury in noticing the increasing business of that city, says, Messrs. Adams, Allen and Co. have now nearly finished their extensive range of buildings for a large cotton factory, and which it is calculated will be in complete operation in three weeks. They have also building, and in a state of considerable forwardness, three steam boats, intended as regular traders between Pittsburg and the Falls.

Exchange.—United States Bank notes and eastern checks in Nashville, are 20 to 22 per cent. advance on Tennessee paper. At New Orleans on the 3d inst. Tennessee notes were selling "readily" at 15 per cent. discount. At Louisville on the 8th inst. specie was 95 to 100 per cent. advance, that is $195 to 200 in Kentucky notes, would purchase $100 in specie.—Whig.

The Commissioners appointed by the states of Virginia and Maryland for the purpose of examining into the affairs of the Potomac Company, and the nature and state of its works on the river, &c. met on the 2d inst. at Georgetown, all being present, namely, Mr. Mason, Mr. Hunter, and Mr. Naylor, from Virginia, Mr. Williams and Mr. Fenwick, from Maryland. We are glad to hear that they have seriously entered on the business of their Commission, with a determination to go through with it.—Nat. Intel.

The Louisiana State Insurance Company, have resolved to present to captain Lamson of the brig Belvidere, a piece of plate of the value of $300, and their thanks in testimony of the high sense they entertain of his conduct in repelling a piratical cruiser, by which he was attacked on the 3d of May, on his passage to New Orleans. The company have also voted $300 to the crew of the Belvidere.

Growth of Timber.—It has been ascertained that wood increases in the following proportion:—The first year as one, the second at 4, the third as 9, the fourth as 15, the fifth as 22, the sixth as 30, the seventh as 40, the eighth as 54, the ninth as 79, and the tenth as 82—from this it is concluded, that wood ought never to be cut till it is in the tenth year of its growth.

The United States' corvette, John Adams, captain Renshaw, arrived off Marcus Hook yesterday, in thirty six hours from Norfolk. Thence she will sail with the North Carolina 74, for the Navy Yard near Norfolk, where the latter ship is to be laid up. The John Adams will afterwards return to the Delaware, and at Wilmington, receive the Hon. Cæsar A. Rodney, Minister to Buenos Ayres.

Rel's Gazette, July 2.

The Bastile—The keys of this once terrible prison, are in the United States, the property of Judge Washington, one of the heirs of the General.
